Begins to look like there will be few players released by the major league clubs, at least until the Federals are killed or make peace with organized baseball. Houck, a pitcher, was sold by the Athletics to the Baltimore International league club,

Pitcher Dan Adams jumped the St. Joe club and opened up with the same kind of a showing in the Federal league is he had been in the habit of making in the Western. This is evidence that the Federal league is no faster than the O'Neill circuit.

will report Thursday in St. Joseph. Pitcher Angerer of the Missouri university cannot report until June 15.

Outfielder Forsythe expected to leave Topeka last night for Sioux City and will probably play in today's game. Bill Rapps thinks he has a bone splintered in his right hand and is having much trouble with the wound. He worked Saturday to relieve Mcallister, who needed a rest.

Lemen, the new infielder of the Missouri leagues with a total of 12.

George Clarke, once a terror of the Western league, failed to stick with Des Moines and was shoved over on the Wichita club. He made a miserable showing in his first game in a Jobber uniform. President Breese ordered his return to Des Moines but "Peaches" Graham" held him for another start and his showing was worse than ever.
